Anatomy of a Citation Exercise

1. Identify the name of the journal in the citation below:

   - Moran, Laura
   - Journal of Autism and Developmental Disorders
   - Sep 2010
   - v40

2. Identify the name of the author in the following citation:

   - Global warming trends : ecological footprints / Julie Kerr Casper.
   - Cite this item (from WorldCat) (click on "Cite" in WorldCat)

   - New York, NY
   - Facts on File
   - Global warming trends : ecological footprints
   - Julie Kerr Casper

3. Match the following:

   - A. v35
   - B. Cooper, Terri
   - C. New York, NY
   - D. n2
   - E. An analysis of cancer in children
   - F. p784-812
   - G. July 2009
   - H. Journal of Pediatric Cancer Research

   Place of Publication
   Journal Title
   Date of Publication
   Volume Number
   Author Name
   Article Title
   Page Numbers
   Issue Number

4. Does the following citation fit the APA style format rules?

   Check here if you're unsure (http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/01/)

   - Yes
   - No
5. In what publication could you find the following article?

A. Letters to nature
B. April 1990
C. Nature
D. 529-531

6. Why does the following citation NOT fit the MLA style format rules?
   Check here if you’re unsure (http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01/)

   A. Journal title is in the wrong place
   B. Page numbers and publication date should be reversed
   C. Article title should not have quotation marks
   D. Author’s name is in the wrong order

7. What citation information can you get from the screenshot below?

   A. Book title
   B. Author’s name
   C. Publication year
   D. Publisher
   E. All of the above